

THIRD CHOICE AND VISUAL CHARTER CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

Terms of Use

Thank you for liking the Third Choice Facebook Page, which is presented by the Public Service Alliance of Canada.

Third Choice on Facebook is about understanding and safeguarding public services for all Canadians. Since being a Third Choice fan means connecting with others interested in supporting this notion, we encourage our fans to respect other community members. We are committed to creating a community that both encourages self-expression and also reflects Third Choice values, including respect for the dignity, rights and property of others. We ask all fans to do their part to help us achieve this goal and, in addition to adhering to the posting guidelines of Facebook, not post content that is:

- a. threatening, abusive, defamatory, obscene, indecent or objectionable
- b. fraudulent, deceptive, or misleading;
- c. in violation of any intellectual property right of another;
- d. in violation of any law or regulation;
- e. racist, sexist, homophobic or otherwise discriminatory in nature;
- f. is otherwise offensive, graphically or in tone

Third Choice reserves the right to remove any content or posting that it determines contravenes these guidelines.

Of course, the content posted by fans does not necessarily reflect our views or opinions. (And, of course, all content posted must comply with Facebook's Statement of Rights and Responsibilities and other policies.)

By participating in the Third Choice campaign, you grant to the Public Service Alliance of Canada and its affiliates a royalty-free license to use your content and ideas in any manner or media, globally, forever, without any obligation to you. If you later change your mind and no longer want to like the Third Choice Facebook Page, please feel free to "unlike" our page by clicking the link "unlike." If you "unlike" this page, Terms and Conditions for submission still apply.
